

UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH ASSISTANT POSITION

- Spring 2016 & Fall 2016 Hourly (10 hrs/week @ $20/hr)

APPLICATION DEADLINE – November 25, 2015

Interviews: December 14-16, 2015.

Michigan State University's Center for Ethics and Humanities in the Life Sciences has an undergraduate student hourly research position beginning Spring 2016 and continuing Fall 2016. The successful candidate will work on a Science and Society @ State (S3) Collaborative grant project studying values and public attitudes toward somatic psychiatric interventions. The RA will assist in conducting both a systematic literature review and gathering sources for a media discourse analysis. They will also assist with organization of a workshop in Fall 2016.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Searching both academic literature and media sources for relevant publications and maintaining a database of resources.
- Contributing to team conceptual planning of coding categories and procedures for maintaining reliability and validity of coding process.
- Assisting with workshop (organization and running the event)

The ideal candidate has the following skills:

- Demonstrated interest in neuroscience, psychiatry and/or ethics
- Demonstrated knowledge of research skills (analysis, synthesis, referencing)
- Proficiency with Microsoft office programs including Word, PPT, Excel etc.
- Strong internet search skills.
- Ability to work independently, including attention to detail

If interested, send a letter of interest and resume by November 25, 2015 to center@msu.edu.